

College and Universities

Fund: General (0001-00)

Sources: Idaho's four 4-year college and universities, the University of Idaho, Boise State University, Idaho State University and Lewis-Clark State College, form a statewide higher education system. Most of the appropriated funding they receive comes from the General Fund. The General Fund consists of, "moneys received into the treasury and not specially appropriated to any other fund" (Idaho Code §67-1205). The fund sources are: 1) individual income tax, 2) corporate income tax, 3) sales tax, 4) cigarette tax, 5) beer tax, 6) wine tax, 7) liquor revenue, 8) kilowatt hour tax, 9) mine license tax, 10) Treasurer's interest on investments of certain idle state funds, 11) court fees and fines, 12) insurance premium tax, 13) sale of alcoholic beverage licenses, 14) unclaimed property, 15) articles of incorporation and uniform commercial code filing fees, 16) estate and transfer tax, and 17) other miscellaneous sources from various agency receipts.

Uses: The 4-year college and universities use their General Fund appropriation to support and maintain the instruction, research and public service functions of the university, including all related institutional support, operation and maintenance activities. Up until FY 2006, the State of Idaho prohibited charging resident students tuition, with tuition defined as the "cost of instruction". The General Fund appropriation to higher education was intended to fund most of the general education instructional costs for resident students. Resident students could only be assessed a matriculation fee to cover non-instructional costs. Non-instructional costs included maintenance and operation of physical plant, student services and institutional support.

Fund: Student Fees (0650-00)

Sources: Unrestricted Current Funds are nonresident tuition. Boise State University, Idaho State University, the University of Idaho and Lewis-Clark State college charge nonresident students tuition to cover much of their cost of instruction. In addition, all resident and nonresident students are charged a variety of fees, where applicable, including: part-time fees, graduate fees, professional fees (e.g. law, medicine, pharmacy, architecture, etc.), course overload fees, summer session fees, in-service teacher fees, Western Undergraduate Exchange (WUE) fees, employee/spouse fees and senior citizen fees. This fund retains any interest income earned from these fees. Revenues generated from these student fees are classified as unrestricted current funds.

Uses: BSU, ISU, UI and LCSC can expend these student fees without restriction in the performance of the primary objectives of the institution, e.g. for instruction, research, extension, and public service, and for programs that support those functions.

The expenditure detail for the University of Idaho is not included below. Unlike BSU, ISU and LCSC, the constitutional status of the UI allows it to retain, manage and expend all student fees directly rather than depositing those moneys with the State Treasurer and expending them through the State Controller.

Fund: Payroll Local (0651-00)

Sources: Lewis-Clark State College uses the State Controller's payroll system to pay all employees of the college, not just those funded with General Fund money. Revenues going in to Fund 0651-00 are generated by the institution's auxiliary enterprises, local accounts and grants.

Uses: Lewis-Clark State College uses Fund 0651-00 as a memo account only for payroll processing purposes and only for those employees who are paid from revenues generated from the college's auxiliary enterprises, local accounts and grants. This account creates no obligation for the State and it relies on zero dollars from the state.

Fund: Restricted Current (0660-00)

Sources: Restricted Current Funds are matriculation fees charged to resident students that cannot be used to pay for the 'cost of instruction.' Boise State University, Idaho State University, the University of Idaho and Lewis-Clark State College charge a matriculation fee to full-time, resident students enrolled in academic credit courses and vocational pre-employment, preparatory programs. This fund retains any interest income earned from these fees. Revenues generated from this student fee are classified as restricted current funds.

Uses: Expenditure of the matriculation fees paid by resident and nonresident students at BSU, ISU, UI and LCSC are restricted to only the costs associated with the maintenance and operation of an institution's physical plant, its student services and institutional support. These funds cannot be used to pay for the 'cost of instruction' for resident students.

The expenditure detail for the University of Idaho is not included below. Unlike BSU, ISU and LCSC, the constitutional status of the UI allows it to retain, manage and expend all student fees directly rather than depositing those moneys with the State Treasurer and expending them through the State Controller.
